

Michael Dominguez, CHSE

Michael has been actively involved in the Hospitality Industry for the last 25 years. His early career included Hyatt Hotels, Starwood Hotels and numerous independent hotel management companies. Michael spent 7 years in Food & Beverage with Hyatt Hotels before jumping to the sales arena.

In 2003, Michael led the efforts of Destination sales for the Palms Springs Desert Resorts CVA where he served as Vice-President of Sales. In 2005, Michael joined Loews Hotels & Resorts and currently serves as Vice-President of Global Sales. His responsibility includes oversight of the National Sales effort for Loews, Industry Relations and 3rd Party Meeting planning company relationships.

Michael serves on the International Board of Directors for Meeting Professional International, Industry Issue and Trend Task Force for PCMA, The Industry Partner Alliance for ASAE, Advisory Board for Starcite and Immediate Past President for MPISCC.